

2024-2025 Innovative Arts Academy Parental/Guardian Consent Form for Student Early Release (End of the Day)

In order for students to be released during scheduled study halls and/or Cougar Studio they must meet the following 4 eligibility requirements and have parent/guardian permission. Parent /Guardian must check the appropriate box(es) and submit this form to grant permission.

To be eligible for Study Hall Release, a student must meet all of the following requirements:

- Is a current 12th grade student
- Is not habitually truant during the current school year
- Has no current write ups (student in good standing)
- Passing all current classes and must remain in a passing status.

 Students who do not meet all 4 criteria will not be granted release at this time. IAA and or the students home school district will not be providing transportation for this release.

Parents / Guardians only need to submit this form one time per child per school year.
NOTE: Academic support (assigned by a specific teacher) is not eligible for student release.
